PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hi Members,

Many thanks to Tony for running our first meeting of the year. I hope everyone had a good break and is ready for another year of motorsport action. Thanks to the committee members for picking up the tasks in running the club. Hopefully many hands make light work and our event can run as efficiently as they have in the past. Our calendar as usual is made up of six motorkhanas, three on dirt and three on the skidpan, so hopefully there is enough variety for everyone not to mention events run by other clubs that can boost your club championship score.

So our first event is a skidpan event at Sydney Motorsport Park on Saturday 10th March so hope to see you there, but our next club meeting is this Tuesday 6th March at Glenbrook Anglican Church Hall from 7.30pm.

All the best

Phil Whitaker

Devotions – March 2018

Introduction

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was dark and chaotic, and the Creator God said, “Let there be light”, and there was light. And God separated the light from the darkness and he saw that it was good. There was evening and there was morning the first day.

After that he went on to create the land and the sea and the sky, and the trees and the plants, and all of the animals and birds and fish.

On the sixth day God said, “Let us make people in our own image”, and he made a man Adam, and a woman Eve, and he said to them “Fill the earth, multiply, look after everything I have made”. He also said to them “You can do anything in this world, but there is one fruit of one tree, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden, you must not eat it or you will die.

The Story

Genesis 3:1-15 <sup>1</sup> Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, <sup>3</sup> but God did say, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’”

<sup>4</sup> “You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman. <sup>5</sup> “For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. <sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the Lord God called to the man, “Where are you?”

<sup>10</sup> He answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.”

<sup>11</sup> And he said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”

<sup>12</sup> The man said, “The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

<sup>13</sup> Then the Lord God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?”

The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14</sup> So the Lord God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this,

“Cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals!

You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup> And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.” (NIV)
